SILURIAN'S OLYMPIA STAKES.

The second week of Hawthorne's midsummer meeting began most auspiciously yesterday, fair weather, an improving track and a large attendance all chiming in to make the day's sport one long to be remembered. Close finishes were the rule of the day and excitement ran high throughout the afternoon. Should no rain fall between now and Wednesday the track by that time will be in tiptop shape. Yesterday it was slow and lifeless and favored mudlarks just a trifle.

The big race of the day was the Olympia Stakes, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds and upward, one and one-sixteenth miles, with $1,000 added. Malay was supposed to be the good thing in this race and was made a decided favorite, but the best he could do was to run a poor third. The winner turned up in Pat Dunne's three-year-old gelding Silurian, which carried but 83 pounds. His only antagonist in the last eighth was Haviland, which carried but 81 pounds. The latter started out as if he was going to make a runaway affair out of the race, leading by from two to four lengths up to the last quarter, where he began to tire. About the eighth post Silurian picked him up and, after a sharp brush in the last sixteenth, won by a half length. Malay finished third seven lengths behind Haviland. He could not get up at any part of the journey and ran altogether a poor race, which was probably due to the dead condition of the track, as he appeared unable to extend himself at his best in it. Cambrian ran well for seven furlongs and then fell gradually away. He has probably not recovered from the effects of his trip on the cars from Saratoga, besides he did not appear to like the lifeless going.

George Arnold, despite his impost of 116 pounds, carried it to victory in the fifth race, a dash of one mile, but he had to be driven out in the closing strides to stall off Argregor's determined bid. George Arnold, always well up, drew away from Argregor in the last sixteenth but Ranch rallied the latter, which responded gamely, sending Winkfield to the whip to win by a neck. Headwater, which had shown the way up to the last eighth, tired rapidly at this point, being beaten two lengths by Argregor for second place. Ed Corrigan flashed his colors here for the first time this year when Ardena went to the post in this race. The horse ran well for a half mile but was beaten off at the end.

Evening Star was first past the wire in the third race, a dash for two-year-olds at five furlongs. She was much the best and showed the most speed for the entire route. She won by two lengths from South Trimble, which beat Rosewar one for second place. South Trimble finished with a rush, coming from way back and fairly running past horses at the end. He got off well, but fell out of it in the early stages of the race. Rosewar tired in the closing strides, as also did Emathion. I. Samelson showed speed for a half mile.

Harry New, although it was the first time he had ever faced the barrier, won the first race in a spirited tilt with Lucy Locket by a head with Hat Mitchell third two lengths away. He laid along sixth to the head of the stretch and then finished strongly but had to be urged out to the full extent to win. Jane Oaker faltered badly in the closing strides. Lawrence M. ran well for a half mile.

Another tight finish came up in the second race when Banish outgamed Brief in the last sixteenth and won by a neck on the post in a terrific drive. Brownie Anderson was third, eight lengths away. Banish was outrun slightly for the first half, but closed fast in the last quarter.

Brief tired in the last hundred yards. Little Duchess II. had enough after six furlongs had been run.

Pat Dunne double shot the game when Max Bendix passed successfully under the wire in the last race, a dash of six and a half furlongs. Maggie Davis led by a slight margin up to a furlong out, where Max Bendix assumed an easy command, winning going away by one length, while Henry of Trastamare beat Andes two and a half for the second money. Henry of Trastamare, outrun for the first five furlongs, finished fast on the extreme outside in the last quarter. Andes grew weary in the last sixteenth, and the same may be said of Rival Dare. Maggie Davis was right there for six furlongs.

A TURF SWINDLER CAUGHT.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 26.—A man named Greenbaum wired from New York instructing Bookmakers Eddie Burke and Sol Lichtenstein to bet $300 each on two horses which he named, adding that he had deposited that sum to the credit of each in the Amsterdam Bank. The operation proved successful, netting this unique speculator $1,012, which he called for in person last Thursday. The following Saturday another order came by wire directing the same layers to bet $500 each on Blues and Herbert, and which sum was, as in the previous transaction, supposed to be deposited in bank. Lichtenstein's cashier had in the meantime wired the bank for information, and was notified that no such person had made any deposits. This clever swindler called today to collect his supposed winnings on Blues and Herbert, both of which had been successful, and was arrested.

The stewards took up all bookmakers' sheets on the St. Finnan-Latson-Carbuncle race today. Ugly rumors are afloat reflecting upon G. E. Smith and his jockey Shaw, and also involving J. Hynes who trained both St. Finnan and Latson. In their previous meeting it was the talk of the track that St. Finnan had been pulled to Latson and vice versa today. Many good judges pronounced Shaw's ride on the latter to have been criminal in appearance.

OUR THOROUGHBREDS ABROAD.

The showing of the American thoroughbreds in England has been exceedingly good, and the tabulated account of the produce of each sire is more than interesting.

Taken by priority of races Watercross stands at the head up to the end of the Goodwood meeting, with nine races to his credit, these being won by Elizabeth M., 2; Watershed, 2; Omaha II., 2; Watertown, 2, and Cressland, 1, the value of these being $15,942.50. Sir Dixon ranks next with six races, of which Kilmarnock II. won 1, Sweet Dixie, 3, and Glen Dixon, 2, valued at $15,950. Then ranks Hanover with five wins to his credit, David Garrick, 1; Holstein, 3, and Star of Hanover, 1, valued in gross with $12,320.

Henry of Navarre has four wins, of which Mount Vernon won 3, and Shibolet, 1, valued at $7,435.50. Goldfinch totaled 4, including Faisan d'Or with 2, Connamore 1, and Forgetful 1, valued at $2,805. Modred also totaled 4, of which Manatee won 2, New York II. 1, Arizona II. 1, valued at $1,740.

Those gaining three races to their credit were Bassettlaw, of which Silverbow, Reversed and Tarnsey won one race each, totaling $3,275. The Sailor Prince, whose good colt Tantalus won three races, valued at $644. Old Pontiac won by Ali II., Cornette and Lakota, one win each, valued at $3,007.50. Riley had three by Miss Bowling, Miss Murphy and Joe Ullman, valued at $2,420, and Himyar had three, two of which Time, 1:23, 24, 50, 1:17.

Winner—Ch. f. by Chorister—Ocean Queen. Went to post at 2:15. At post 17 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Annie Thompson broke slowly, but ran around the entire field on the turns and finished with a rush and is evidently in good form again, which makes her outclass all here except Speedmast. Ring-leader was favored by the cunny going and was lucky. Connie appeared all over the winner for the first half, with her rider looking back, but her right hand stirrup broke in the stretch and that must have stopped her at the end. She is a rank in and out. James J. Corbett is worth remembering when on a heavy track. Speedmast lacked early speed, but was going well at the end. She is far from being in form. Lizzie A. is only moderate.

Scratched—27507 Vento, 103; 27390 Cadurdis, 92. Corrected weights—Sadie Southwell 95. Overweights—James J. Corbett, 1 pound; Heroics, 1; Idle Ways, 1. Annie Thompson, show, evens. Ringleader, show, 4 to 5. Connie, show, 2 to 1. Speedmast, show, 1 to 4. Lizzie A., show, 8 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Tammany—Ayrshire Rose. Went to post at 2:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. St. Finnan ran a speedy and game race, but was lucky to score over Latson, which should have won but for being pinned on the rail and crossed near the finish by the winner. Carbuncle failed in the stretch and was palpably out of condition, as the track conditions favored him particularly. The race was very bad from a time standpoint. Scratched—(27635) Decanter, 120; (27663) Kinnikinnick, 113. Overweights—St. Finnan, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. f. by Florist—Czarina II. Went to post at 3:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Mary Worth received a lucky and perfect ride and that won for her, as Happy was evidently best today but suffered from interference on the far turn and was hopelessly messed about in the stretch by her rider. Katherine C. has been well tried and made up some ground in the last quarter. Nanaimo displayed an extra good turn of speed for a half. Scratched—27733 Sister Juliet, 101; 27504 Lady Gaiety, 99. Mary Worth, show, 1 to 4. Happy, show, 1 to 5. Katherine C., show, 6 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Bathampton—Trade Wind. Went to post at 3:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Pleasant Sail, in great form and cleverly handled, ran a speedy and game race. Lee King ran in remarkably improved form, was in the worst going throughout and bumped at the end. Althea, as usual, finished with a great rush. Cogswell ran a fair race. Blueaway broke slowly and was bumped at the start and sulked after that. He was given a very seedy-looking ride. Oliver Mc quit in the stretch. Mercer ran badly. Scratched—27773 Bounteous, 99; 27773 Thoroughbred, 96.

OUR THOROUGHBREDS ABROAD.

were won by Ailyar, Dixie one, valued at $2,050. The others ranking at two and one winners were Kingston, Cavalier, St. Andrew, Potomac, Hindoo, St. Leonards, Tammany, Belvidere, Simon Magnus, Candelmas, Deceiver, Luke Blackburn, St. George, Sensation, Hayden Edwards, Galore and Silver Fox.

The exception is the lamented Domino! He heads the list in total won, this being $30,875, of which his daughter, Cap and Bella won $26,525 in the Oaks at Epsom, and Olympia who won once, netting $4,350.

Brought down to a fine point, fifty-one American bred horses won seventy-one races in England, winning $127,362.50 prior to August 1, and twenty sires were represented. There is therefore no reason for doubt or uncertainty as to the glorious future of the great American thoroughbred, and Americans have every reason to be proud of its performances at home and abroad.—Spirit of the Times.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jack Joyner, the well-known trainer, believes that he has the winner of the Futurity in Numeral, a colt by Juvenal and owned by Perry Belmont. Joyner gave it out that two days ago the colt showed him a six furlong trial over the Sheephead Bay race track in the fast time of 1:13. If Numeral can run that fast in the Futurity he will come very close to beating Nasturtium and the rest of the cracks which will start. Few believe, however, that the time was correct.

The well-known racer Bangle, by Iroquois—Bracelet, the property of E. S. Gardner, Jr., died in his stall at Hawthorne yesterday from the effects of a severe attack of colic. Bangle, when in his prime, was a superior race horse, winning many important races against high-class opposition. Lately he had become sour tempered and averse to racing and had recently been schooled over the jumps with a view to making him a steeplechaser.

Green Morris' Cunard has not raced since he has been at Saratoga and was under the care of a veterinarian since his victory at Morris Park. His work has not been startling, but he seems to be all right and a sure starter for the Futurity. On his best form Cunard must be counted in and his astute trainer is the man to deliver him at the post fit, if such a thing is possible.

Glenheim, the noted thoroughbred stallion purchased last spring of John E. Madden, by John Mackay, for J. B. Haggin, has been shipped to California, where he will go into the Rancho del Paso stud. Glenheim has been quartered the past six months at Elmendorf. He was brought out by Madden, and won several stakes as a two and three-year-old.

Batten, owned by Tom McDowell, has been sent to Ashland and will be placed in the stud. McDowell sold the running qualities of the horse two years ago to Captain Sam Brown of Pittsburgh for $10,000. Rush, the wonderful race mare, also bred by McDowell and sold to W. C. Whitney for $7,500, has been placed in the stud at La Belle farm.

W. C. Whitney has purchased nineteen acres of land near the Saratoga race track from Senator Eugene F. O'Connor, on private terms. It is understood that Mr. Whitney will build a stable and training quarters on the property.

Hugh McCarran has purchased of J. L. Holland The Golden Prince, ch. g, 3, by Prince of Monaco—Cassilla, and Far Cry, br. c, 2, by Farandole—Clara Christine.

When J. G. Follansbee sold a half interest in Cameron to Mr. Davis at the beginning of the season he only received $100. A few days ago Mr. Follansbee bought Mr. Davis's interest back again for $4,000.

The Fasig-Tipton Company have received instructions to sell all of the Rancocas yearlings—forty-two head—at the Sheephead Bay paddocks, on Thursday, September 12.

So So, Chicago. H. S. Tobacco has won fifty-two races in the course of his career.

W. Walk, Detroit, Mich. Plead was "out" to show in race 27552.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the number of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1901 contains all racing records at large, revised and complete up to the end of 1900; four handicap systems with directions for their practical application, a table showing how to compute bookmaking percentages, Winner—Blk. c, by Pirate of Penzance—Barcelona.

Went to post at 2:10. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Harry New finished strongly through the last eighth, but had to be driven out to stall off Lucy Locket's determined bid at the end. The latter got into an early entanglement and never got out of it until the natural spread at the head of the stretch came. When she got clear sailing she fairly flew past those in front of her. Hat Mitchell, as usual, quit when the pinch came. Jane Oaker tired badly when a sixteenth out. Lawrence M. showed early speed, as did Joe Brown.
Scratched—25292 Prince Webb, 103.
Overweights—Lawrence M., 2 pounds; Lucy Locket, 3; Harry New, 1; Jane Oaker, 3.
Harry New, show, 2 to 1. Lucy Locket, show, 1 to 3. Hat Mitchell, show, 3 to 5. Jane Oaker, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g, by Wadsworth—Glendelia.
Went to post at 2:50. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second easily. Banish and Brief hooked up at the last eighth post and fought it out sharply to the wire, the former outgaming the latter. Brownie Anderson quit badly when a furlong out. Precursor ran in much improved form and will bear watching. Little Duchess II. ran well for six furlongs.
Scratched—27792 Helen Paxton, 93; 27259 Little Singer, 98.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Silurian closed up with great speed in the last eighth, where he caught the tiring Haviland and beat him out in a drive. The latter was speedy for a mile, but was well spent when a furlong out. Malay could never get up and probably did not fancy the dead going. Cambrian showed speed for seven furlongs and then tired and quit. He has probably not recovered from his trip on the cars from Saratoga. Constellator showed early speed.

Went to post at 4:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. George Arnold came fast in the final eighth, but had to be driven out to stall off Argregor's bid at the end. The latter ran a game race and stood a long stretch drive. Headwater had enough when a furlong out. He likes a fast track best. Kentucky Babe got entangled in the barrier at the start and lost some lengths, but it made no difference in the result. Artena showed speed for a half mile.

Went to post at 2:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a sharp drive; second easily. To win Lord Neville had to be much the best and lucky. He warmed up sore and ran a dull race to the stretch entry where O'Brien came on the inside and was cut off by The Wag. He had to pull up and lost four lengths but came on the outside very fast and won under the whip. The Wag, weakly ridden, is a much improved horse and should have won as the race was run. Elsie Barnes did her best. Ladas did not meet with any mishaps. Hardly was in the running until bumped at the three eighths, then she sulked.
Overweights—Ladas, 2 pounds.

Went to post at 3:02. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Dale got unusual early speed out of Sambo, and the colt being a strong finisher he had but little trouble at the end. Ogle ran a good race to the last sixteenth, then tired as if short. Varner is much improved and finished stoutly. Miss Gaines showed vast improvement under a very uneven ride. She will possibly do presently. Clarena did her best and so did Crozier. Aledda showed speed to the stretch entry, then quit almost to a walk.
Overweights—Clarena, 3 pounds; Aledda, 3.

 Went to post at 4:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second cleverly. Rag Tag was easily best, came away in the stretch and was going strongly at the end. Rockwater tired in the cuppy going and will improve when on a faster track. Knapsack finished gamely. Batyah should have been closer up but was given a very weak finish after being carried wide on the turn. Goldaby closed a gap and ran on the extreme outside throughout. Broadstreet was badly ridden. Emma A. M. quit badly.

 Winner—B. h. by Onondaga—Jersey Girl.
 Went to post at 2:54. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second the same. The first three fought it out sharply in the stretch. Hayden saved ground with Cheval d'Or all the way, came through on the rail at the stretch turn and finished strongly. Drogheda swung wide into the stretch and lost ground, but got second place in the final stride. The Laurel was tiring at the end. Innominatum did not like the going.

 Winner—B. c. by Longstreet—Game Lass.
 Went to post at 3:22. At post 1 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Easy Street made his own running and was never in trouble. Abbey Dell easily held the others safe. Bourbon King was doing his best all the way and his rider was hustling him along at the end to stall off Appointee. Cousine did not like the going. Woodmanstem seemingly could not raise an ordinary gallop.

 Winner—Ch. m. by Derwentwater—Noblesse.
 Went to post at 4:25. At post 13 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Springwells went all around her field after beginning slowly and came away without much of an effort at the end. Competitor ran a good race and made up a lot of ground from a bad beginning. J. J. T. had to go all around his field to get up. He appeared like a winner at the stretch turn, but quit. Tyrba had no mishaps, but tired, as did Curtsey.
